ber of the committee had dared to lemand my retirement from the com-mittee; second, that the question of my retirement from the committee was before the House; and, third, and was before the House; and, third, and post astonishing, that the question of my retirement from this committee could be settled because I dared to have any convictions of my own, to exercise any judgment, appeal to any canon of justice or vote in accordance with any opinion of my own. Let me say here and now, that if in my service upon committee loyalty to my party requires me to do as I am bld, either by the corrput alliances of by the correct alliances of B. Martin or the intelerant outinfluences represented by .. illiam J. Bryan, or the combined influence of I shall refuse to ever the man-of my party and shall prefer to subscribe myself to the obligations of Doesn't Fear Hinckmail.

"I have never yet come to the prostituted position intellectually where I shall so debase mysel, as to thing away the obligations which I took to serve my country, that the fear of organized blackmail, or because of the uninformed and ...patient criticism of a man whom I have supported in two of his three presidenti campaigns." Shes Mr. Littleton stated that he confessbd to some "be-wilderment over the prefaces progressive or reactionary," and that he believed there "is a distinct class of politicians whose prejudices are progressive, but whose principles are reactionary,"

"These leaders of progressive préju-Doesn't Fear Blackmail.

"These leaders of progressive prejudices and reactionary reform," he said, Poverlook the fact that real progress is the unfolding energy of the whole people, working the intracle of civilization through the irresistible industry and unfettered genius of a progressive pace. They seem to think that progressing the quick and unquestioning appropriation of every untried experiment instead of the slow and patient building of the years.

BRONCHITIS CATARRH, GRIPPE AND

RHEUMATISM ALL DAUGGISTS

ing Slippers, and Dancing Pumps at

N. W. Corner Third and Broad

Handsome Furniture for Gifts

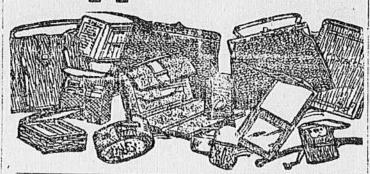

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc., 1418-1420 East Main Street

SPECIAL SALE OF

Blankets and Comforts Sutherland & Cherry, Inc. 310 East Broad Street

B. Samuel's' STITCH DOWNS ON SALE AT ALBERT STEINS 5th and Broad

WILL NOT SUBMIT A Leather Gift WAY IS OPENED TO BLACKMAILING TO THE TOTAL FOR PROSECUTION Will Be Highly Appreciated

Gifts for Him:

Card Cases, 25e on.
Bill Folds, 25e on.
Collar Rags, 81.00 on.
Stick Pin Cases, 75e on.
Flasis, 50e on.
Collapsible Cups, 50e.
Witsk Holders, 50e.
Military Brush Sets, 82.00 on.
Cothes Brushes, 81.00 on.
Lenther Suit Cases, 84.00 on.
Fitted Bugs, 85.00 on.
Wardrobe Trunks, 830.00 on.
Safety Razors, 50e on.
Mirrors, 81.00 on.
Trayeling Clocks, 85.00 on. Fraveling Clocks, $5.00 on. Desk Clocks, $1.00 on. Fitted Tollet Cases, $2.50 on. Figurette Cases, 25c on. ar Cases, 50e on. brellas, $1.00 on. ket Knives, 50e on. ding Coat Hangers, $1.00 on The Cases, $2.00 on, Handkerchief Cases, $1.00 on, Hat Brushes, $1.00 on, The Racks, $1.00 on, Thermos Bottles, $1.00 on,

Gifts for Her:

Shopping Bags, $1.00 on. Photo Frames, 25c. Writing Folios, $1.50 on. Fitted Tollet Cases, $2.50 on. Fitted Tollet Cases, $2.50 on. Amicure Sets, $2.50 on. Medicine Cases, 50c on. Medicine Cases, 50c on. Medicine Cases, 50c on. Selsson Sets, $1.00 on. Desk Sets, $5.00 on. Selsson Sets, $1.00 on. Traveling Clucks, $5.00 on. Music Rolls, 50c. Thermos Bottles, $1.00 on. Thermos Bottles, $1.00 on. Thermos Bottles, $1.00 on. Phone Register, 50c on. Laundry List, 50c on. Laundry List, 50c on. Laundry List, 50c on. Sewing Sets, $1.00 on. Sewing Sets, $1.00 on. Needle Cases, 50c on. Umbrellas, $1.00 on. Jewel Boxes, $2.00 on. Umbrellas, $1.00 on.
Jewel Boxes, $2.00 on.
Fitted Suit Cases, $6.50 on.
Fitted Bugs, $5.00 on.
Wardrole Trunks, $45.00 on,
Sewing Baskets, $2.50 on.
Handkerehlef Cases, $1.00 on.
Glove Cases, $2.00 on.

trust League; and that in that way Martin has been able to profit and benefit by this investigation.

"I am informed and believe that Martin more than two years ago endeavored to procure some Senator or Congressians to introduce.

deavored to procure some Senator or Congressman to introduce some bill calling for an investigation of order to seeve the purposes of their stock speculation in Wall Street."

Mr. Littleton said that when he communicated these facts to the committee he was answered by the chairman that parliamentary practice did not permit him under the resolution to call the committee together and subspecies witnesses. "Hence," said Mr. Littleton, "I found my sole remedy to rise to a question of personal privilege and present the matters to the House."

Littleton outlined in detail his work os a member of the steel com-mittee, referring particularly to the fact that to him was left the task of bringing out the evidence relating to

Pay Your Poll Tax at Once

It is of the first importance that every citizen of litchmond qualify to vote in the Jime election of next year. To do so, the capitation fax for 1011 must be paid before office closing hours December 10 to City Treasurer James B. Pace, or to the Deputy Treasurer in Washington Ward. Each citizen should attend to this in person. If not assessed in the Treasurer's effice, the Commissioner of the Revenue will make out assessment papers, and then the fax must be paid to the Treasurer'. Delay will spell disfranchisement in the most important election of the city's listory. Regisfration may be attended to later on. The poil tax is the thing.

703 East Broad Street

This decision was reached in disposing of 1900 by Francisco and the policy was paternalism of government against the committee decision was reached in the policy was for the press which he said had been circulated by Nr. Martin concerning the property of the press which he charged was interested in the New York press which he charged was interested in the New York press which he charged was interested in the New York at the his and woold give a rair and interest in pulse policion.

A silly, Singid Lie, which the he was unable to control that a subsequent interview, in a concented that he had been policionally the proposal of the policy was proportionally the policy of New York at the his and woold give a rair and interview. The provided provide which and would give a fair and intrial service to the committee.

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me to my this sekening, this still, this stustill after my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

A SHD, Stepold Lie.

To suppose I be usefess for me
that there my appointment of war

He show the same that the least of the committee would

He show that the short of the stepoly of the stepoly of the stepoly of the stepolytic of the stepol

Art Dealer Sentenced to Pay $15,000 for Undervaluing Goods.

iew York, December t.—Benjamin J. Du-m, son of the late Sir Joseph Duveen and dier member of the Fifth Avenue art a several of whose members have been et for undervaluation of goods, withdrew plea of not guilty and on entering a plea of diy was fined 115,500 by Judge Holt in the ited States Circuit Court this afternoon, udge Holt imposed the fine after a thing arraignment of the art dealer by statant United States Attorney-General liam H. Wemple, who demanded a pris-cept of the state of the control of the control of the sentence.

Stanchfield, counsel for the deagreement between himself and District At-toriesy Wiss, whereby it was decided, he said, that the payment of $1,20,000 as resti-tution would eliminate the Duveens from any would eliminate the Duveens from $1,130,000 had been restored to the govern-ment. It pointed out.

This Hair Remover Works Like Magic

A paste made with water and plain powdered delatone and applied to a hairy surface will remove every trace of hair or fuzz. The paste should be left-on the skin two or three minutes, then removed and the surface washed. This will leave the skin hairless, firm and white. If the growth is very thick or studborn, it may require a second application.

application.

Druggiets charge one dollar for an original one-ounce package of delation, but to those afflicted with superfluous growths this will prove far cheaper than the electric needle, while the absence of the attending pain and time-consuming trips to the beauty parlor will be appreciated.

Action of Circuit Court in

Alaskan Coal Case Is Reversed. Washington, December 4 .- The Su-

reme Court of the United States today opened the way for the Federal day opened the way for the Federal government to prosecute coal land frauds in Alaska by holding that the general coal land laws of the United States, which forbid persons or associations making more than one entry, applied to the unsurveyed coal regions of Alaska. The immediate result of this holding was the reversal of the action of the United States Circuit Court for Western Washington in quashing as invalid the Indictment against Charles F. Munday and Archie W. Shiels on charges of conspiring to against that is invalid the indictment against Charles F. Munday and Archie W. Shiels on charges of conspiring to defraud the government out of Alaska coal lands valued at $10,000,000. The way is now opened for their trial on this charge. Justice Lurton rendered the unanimous opinion of the court. Munday and Shiels were indicted, along with others, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government by seeking to procure for the Alaska Development Company and the Pacific Coal and Oil Company some 6,000 acres of Alaska coal lands. It was alleged that some forty persons were induced to make entries, ostensibly for themselves, but in fact for the use of the two corporations.

The indictments were brought in the United States Circuit Court for Western Washington, but were quashed by ern Washington, but were quashed by person or association was not limited to one entry of coal lands in Alaska. The government brought the judge's action to the Supreme Court for re-view.

Disputed Point Settled.

The Supreme Court passed upon a much-disputed point of law, when it decided that a life insurance policy may be assigned to one not related or to a creditor of the person insured when the assignment was not contemplated at the time at the policy was recovered.

Says, Will Oppose Plan to Nominate Him.

Washington. December si--Hepresentative
Longworth of Ohio, son-in-law of Theodore Rooseveit, to-day made a brief statement apparently intended to discourage any and all attempts to boom te former President for the nomination of his party in 1912. Mr.
Longworth's comment was called for by the recent utterances of Walter F. Brown, chairman of the Ohio State central cominities, to the effect that Rooseveit was the choice of the Buckeye State for the presidential nomination next year, and that a presidential primary would reveal this fact.

a presidential primary fact.

"I. like all of Mr. Roosevelt's real friends," said Mr. Longworth, "am discouraging and shall continue to discourage any movement to nominate him at the next Republican convention, in connection with this I may add that after leaving Cincinnati and before coming to Washington I spent a day with Mr. Roosevelt in New York."

CHARTERS ISSUED

Norfolk and Petersburg Transportation Company, Norfolk, Va. George S. Briggs, president; M. T. Blussingham, vice-president and general manager; H. C. Johnson, secretary and treasurer-all of Norfolk, Va. Capital: Maximum, $73,660; minimum, $5,600. Object: Operate a steamboat line between Norfolk and Petersburg.

Ronnoke Motor Car Company (Inc.), Roanoke, Va. Frank Welch, Sr., president; J. E. Shickle, vice-president, Frank Welch, Jr., secretary and treasurer-all of Roanoke, Capital: Maximum, $5,600, minimum, $5,000. Objects: Operate a motor car company. The American Adjustable Wheel Company (Inc.), Richmond. R. H. Bruce, president, Chester, Va.: Clarence Vaden, vice-president; J. Il Pinner, treasurer; J. C. Davis, secretary-all of Richmond. Capital: Maximum, $100,000; minimum, $20,000. Object: Manufacture and setl an adjustable automobile wheel.

Amendment was insued to the charter of the Potersburg Investment Corporation, Potersburg, Ve., decreasing its maximum capital from $300,000 to $100,000, and its minimum from $100,000 to $5,000.

Mission Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the Richmond district will be held at Broad Street Methodist I Church on Wednesday, beginning at 10 A. M. This afternoon session will run from 3 to 4 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged, and all who are interested in mission work are invited to attend. A sormon will be preached at 8 P. M. by Rov. W. J. Young, D. D., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church. All of the Methodist I churches will be closed on Wednesday evening so that members may attend the mission service.

Give Your Loved Ones Happiness, in a Player Piano

Far Greater Values Here Than at Any Dealer's "Sale"

EVERYDAY in the year you'll get at our fac-tory wareroom bargains worth advertising SENSA-TIONALLY.

Think what it would mean. To offer Pianos and Players AT COST, EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR! No dealer can do this—AND LIVE.

The ONLY way WE can do so is by selling DIRECT FROM THE FACTORY, of which this wareroom is simply part and parcel. There is but one small profit on each instrument from makers to YOUR HOME.

In your Stieff no part of your piano money goes for big advertising bills and other NEEDLESS dealer expenses.

The ECONOMY practiced by this little advertisement as compared to the great flaring "broadsides" of the dealer—is simply MORE proof of how we SAVE YOU MONEY.

E. G. RIKE.

Our liberal policy includes easy terms and a fair valuation for old instruments taken in exchange.

You must judge the tone-beauty of the Stieff and Shaw Pianos. SEE their rich massive case work. Get our prices. Then compare for yourself.

Why not drop in for one of our handsome piano catalogues. Take it with you. Then you will be certain of securing the very utmost in Piano value; in satisfaction, in LASTING pleasure.

Here are just two of the many values the Stieff DIRECT-WAY permits us to offer. One $900 Stieff Combination 65 and 88-not Player, new, has never left the $600.00

205 EAST BROAD ST., RICHMOND, VA.

Juan Paredes Writes Book Tell-

in Washington.

New Orleans, La., December i.—In a 200-page book published here, Juan E. Paredes, former special minister of linance of Honduras, declares the State Department at Washington encouraged the Bonilla revolution in Honduras last winter in an attempt to force the Honduran government to sign the Morgan loan agreement. Paredes asserts the Washington State Department virtually submitted to president Davila, of ilonduras, this uittimatum:

"The protectorate and the Morgan loan, or the revolution."

President Davila, Paredes declared in his book is a long congressmen at Washington.

AROUND THE HOTELS

"While there is so much in the group of little Central American republics will mean the abandonment of the Monroe doctrine, the destruction of the Pan-American union, a reproach to the United States—which has so long championed the rights of independence, freedom and democracy—and a source of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States Senate of the United States—which has so long championed the rights of independence, freedom and democracy—and a source of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States Senate of the United States—which has so long championed the rights of independence, freedom and democracy—and a source of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States—sends a burney of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States—sends a burney of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States—which has so long championed the rights of independence, freedom and democracy—and a source of bitter feeling and hatred between the races on this hemisphere."

Paredes was opposed to ratification by the United States—which has so long cham mitted to continue.

Paredes goes on to say that despite the Honduran Congress' rejection of the agreement, it was submitted to the

Indigestion Gone Digestit Did It

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—T. M. Hays writes: "I have tried many prescriptions and a lot of patent medicines, and received more benefit from a package of your and a lot of parent me package of your ceived more benefit from a package of your Digestit than all the other medicines. It was troubled with heartburn, sour stomach and a burning in my chest, and everything I ate hurt me: but now I can eat anything I want, and that heartburn and sour stomach have disappeared. It have recommended your medicine to many sufferers, and cannot say too much for your wonderful remedy. I endorse for your wonderful remedy. I feel good for your wonderful remedy. I endorse avery word you say about it. I feel good to-day, and owe it to your excellent medizine."

As an "After Dinner" tablet to relieve or prevent that full, uncomfortable feeling after extine.

ing after eating a hearty meal there is no better remedy than Digestit—it digests the food and prevents fermentation. 50c

Ratcliffe & Tanner Florists

25 W. Broad St., Mad. 6081 Delegates Will Attend National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

Roses, Chrysanthemums, Orchids, Violets,

Fresh From Our Greenhouses Every Day

hat passed among the governments of Great Britain, Honduras and the United States is published in Pare-des's book, and in this connection he asks: "Is it the intention of President Taft to subjugate Honduras and turn the country over to the dominance of Wall Street financiers? Will 'dollar diplomacy' go this far?

"The subjugation of the group of little Central American republics will mean the abandanean of the Warsee

"The protectorate and the Morgan loan, or the revolution."

President Davila, Paredez deciares in his book, was forced to agree to the loan proposition, and ordered the agreement signed.

"From what happened afterward," Paredes asserts, "it may be inferred that Davila had entered into an understanding with the State Department that the revolution would be stopped provided he put through the treaty and the lon."

The solzure of the vessel Hornet and the indictment of the revolution. However, according to Paredes, the Honduras Congress atmost unauimously rejected the loan agreement and the revolution was permitted to continue."

**Mile there is so much talk of associations to build long stetches of new road, it is to be lived to be it agreement signed.

"While there is so much talk of associations to build long stetches of new road, it is a top to be in the long to get a small sum and repair amount to nothing more attempted to get a small sum and repair amount to mothing more attempted, the pair was being taken by tugs to a new berth, to make room for the battleships Michigan and for the battleships Michigan and stop to be in the bighway put in the bighway put in the bighway put in the bighway put in this connection. However, according to Paredes, the Honduras Congress atmost unauimously rejected the loan agreement and the revolution was permitted to continue."

**Battle for the cambe, death and the same to be overly that the cruiser estance in the top at the paredex of associations to build long stetches of new road, long the pair was permitted to continue.

**Battle for the camber and temperature and the indication of the situation of the plates below the water line.

The Dreadnought was being taken by tugs to a new berth, to make room for the battleships Michigan and for the solute course, there are holes, the ship was permitted to course, there are holes, and these would do to the same stream of the battleships of the between the solute and the highway put in the bighway put in the bighway put in the battlesh

Famwille (probably could run through that town), and thence to Lynchburg.

State Hospital Commissioner J. M. Bauserman, of Woodstock, was in the city yeaterday.

E. M. Fulton was in Richmond from Wise yesterday.

E. M. Fulton was in Richmond from Wise yesterday.

Virginians at the Hotels.

Lexington—J. F. Jenkins, South Boston, G. H. Paxxon, Natural Bridge; J. A. Potts, Barhameville; J. D. Dowling, Baskerville; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kauffman, Green Baylin, L. K. Mooers, Staunton.

Richmond—Dr. H. D. Scott Morres; S. A. Potts, Barhameville; J. D. Dowling, Baskerville; Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Easley, South Boston; George Wright, Gordonsville; W. J. Westworth, Danville, H. Kaufman, Virginis; G. S. Saunders, Cumberland, Murphys—H. J. Arrington, Claremont; E. M. Pulton, Wise; L. P. Stearnes, Newport of Green, I. Ly Depoit, D. L. C. Tollon, Green, I. Ly Depoit, D. J. Polarmette, South Boston; George Wright, Gordonsville; W. J. Westworth, Danville, Murphys—H. J. Arrington, Claremont; E. M. Pulton, Wise; L. P. Stearnes, Newport (Green, I. Ly Depoit, D. L. C. Tollon, Green, I. Ly Depoit, D. C. Fulty, Boston, Tollon, Green, I. Ly Depoit, William T. Powers, Policy Depoits, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Priddy, Keysville; Green, Ly Depoit, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Priddy, Keysville; Green, William T. Powers, Policy Depoits, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Priddy, Keysville; Green, Suffolk; C. H. Paic, Green, Suffolk; C. H. Paic, Green, J. H. W. Darden, Suffolk; C. H. Paic, Green, Suffolk; C. H. Paic, Green, J. H. C. Priddy, Keysville; G. W. Dainger, G. W. Dain

LEAVES TO-DAY

The delegates representing the Chamber of Commerce and the city at the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which will meet in Washington, will leave Richmond this afternoon at 3:50 o'clock by way of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railrond. The delegates are George W. Rogers (chalrman), John B. E.lley (subchairman), John R. Grimes, C. C. Jones, Claude L. Bukhns, John C. Preoman, George Bryan, B. F. Ellington H. W. Wood, W. A. Chang, C. C. Jones, Claude L. Bukhns, John C. Preoman, George Bryan, B. F. Ellington H. W. Wood, W. T. Chang, C. S. Sephard, of the United Commercial Travelers.

MR. COSBY SOLO ORGANIST AT SERVICE IN NORFOLK

Ernest H. Cosby, organist of the Sco Baptist Church, will leave the city toin order to participate in the public serof the American Guild of Organists at held to-night in Christ Church, Norfolk, Mr. Cosby will be the sale organist at a service, and will play a Bach prelude fugue, and a suite of four places by Bo mann. The balance of the program consist of choral selections by the fullof men and boys under the direction of J. Miller, organist of Christ Church.

Shock Distributed So Evenly That Only Little Damage Results.

New York, December 4.—the auxiliary cruiser Dixle will be put in dry dock at the Brooklyn Navy Yard this week as the result of a collision with the Dreadnought Delaware in the navy yard basin late yesterday. The big battleship rammed the smaller vessel with enough force to have sunk an ordinary boat, but the usual good luck that has been with the American navy in all its history again was in evidence, and the shock was distributed so evenly that the cruiser eacaped with a bad shaking up, and a temporary list. The damage, it is believed, with amount to nothing more serious than a possible forcing of some serious than a possible forcing of some serious than a possible forcing of some sion, and bluejackets scampered out in izes excess oil and cleanses every strand of hair. Rinsing leaves hair and scalp immaculately clean and promotes a healthy condition in both. With canthrox shampoos a luxuriant growth of glossy hair, richly beautiful in its natural tint, is certain to be the legacy of every woman."

Hopkins Furniture Co., 7 West Broad St.